

Speaker: Panel Discussion
University of Notre Dame

Thursday, October 14, 2010
5:00 PM
117 Hayes-Healy Hall

Title: Graduate School

Abstract:

Have you considered going on to graduate study in mathematics or a related field? Wondering what this entails? How to prepare? How to pick the right school for you? Concerned for your sanity? Four recent Notre Dame alums will describe their own paths to & through graduate school and then serve as a panel for further discussion of all things related to graduate study.

Moderator: Michael Broshi

Panel participants (with year of graduation from ND and graduate program):

Zachary Madden `07 (University of Chicago),
Margaret Doig `05 (Princeton University),
Matt Gunden, `08 (Northwestern University, Economics)
Kim Spayd `01 (North Carolina State University)